POPULAR JUNE BRIDE

Miss Patti Marie Smith, who will be married in Nashville, N. C., to-day to James Nicholson Sills.

for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities until Tuesday, October 3, was held at 11 A. M. yesterday, in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society, with the president, Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, in the chair.

After the treasurer's report had been submitted, the society decided to make a final payment on the Rising Sun Tavern in Fredericksburg, and to reduce a note on the Powder Horn lot in Williamsburg. As the result of a letter read by the treasurer from the secretary of the Drummondtown branch of the association, at Accomac, Va., it was decided to help that branch in the matter of repairing and restoring the Debtors' Prison, at Accomac.

Mrs. J. B. Lightfoot made a highly satisfactory report of matters at Jamestown and of receipts for the month of May. She brought to the attention of the association the condition of the Washington and Ball burying ground, owned by it, near Leesburg, Va. On motion of Mrs. Christopher Tompkins, seconded by Mrs. M. C. Valentine, $50 was voted for repairs to this burying ground.

The corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. Enders Robinson, mentioned reports received from two branches, the Tennessee and Washington branches. The directress of the former branch, Mrs. M. L. Hume, sent a newspaper clipping describing a recent entertainment given by her branch, and the appointment by her of a landmark committee. New members elected in the Tennessee branch were also mentioned by name. The secretary of the Washington branch forwarded dues and a list of members. Mrs. Robinson's motion to amend Act VIII, section 3 of the Constitution to read: "There shall be an advisory board of not more than twenty-five gentlemen, who shall be elected at the annual meeting," was seconded by Miss M. P. Harris, and carried.

The life members were reported. Miss Eloise Floyd Derby, of Bar Harbor, Me.; and Mrs. David Brown, of Richmond. The list of new annual members as given out by Mrs. G. R. Cannon as follows: C. T. Jackson, of Portland, Ore.; Captain R. J. Bos, of Delatville, Va.; Miss E. L. Lander, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Miss H. M. Ferguson, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. J. E. Rogers, of Delatville, Va.; Miss L. M. Williams, of Richmond; Mrs. A. B. Johnson, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wingfield, of Richmond.

Mrs. Ellyson proposed for membership the name of Mrs. James C. Fisher, of Redville, Va.

The chairman of the Jamestown committee, Mrs. R. T. Hunter was given a rising vote of thanks, after making a report for herself and her committee, the excursion having proved the most successful in the history of the association.

Mr. Stanard announced that the bronze tablet to be placed on Western Armory would arrive some time during July. Its formal acceptance will be held over until the autumn.

The secretary of the John Marshall house committee reported work accomplished and an ordinance prepared by the City Attorney, to be signed and submitted to the Finance Committee and City Council, for adoption. The following resolution, introduced by Mrs. John B. Lightfoot and seconded by Miss M. P. Harris, was carried: "Resolved, That Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, president of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities and her committee be, and are hereby authorized to accept on behalf of this association, the custody and care of the John Marshall house, and are further empowered to execute such papers as may be required in the transfer of the property to the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities."

The association afterward adjourned for the summer to meet the first Tuesday in October. Stay-at-Home Whist Club. The Stay-at-Home Whist Club held its regular meeting Monday night at Miss Guillaume's, 338 West Grace Street, four tables playing. The best score was made by Mrs. A. P. Wilmer and S. W. Travers. The club will meet next week at Miss Harvie's, 1008 Park Avenue.

TAFT'S CABINET IS KEPT WAITING

President Busy Paying Tribute to Half a Dozen Heroes.

BESTOWS HONOR MEDALS

Men Had Shown High Courage in Accident on Battleship.

Washington, June 13.—The Cabinet was kept waiting to-day while President Taft, as commander-in-chief of the navy yard, paid tribute to six enlisted men in the service. In the presence of Secretary of the Navy Meyer and Captain Wiley, of the battleship North Dakota, the President presented the men with medals of honor, the highest distinction which this government can bestow. The President spoke in praise of their heroic deeds, when, on September 5, 1910, an oil fuel explosion on the North Dakota killed three men, put in jeopardy the lives of scores of others, and placed the battleship itself in danger. Thomas Stanton and Karl Westa, chief machinist's mates; Patrick Reid and August Holtz, chief water tenders; Charles C. Roberts, machinist's mate, first class, and Harry Lipscomb, water tender, made up the honored half dozen. These men waded in water up to their waists, in dense smoke, unbearable heat and the fumes of burning oil and gas and steam, to rescue their comrades and to prevent further explosion. In addition to the medals of honor, a gratuity of $100 was given to each man.

"It is a great pleasure for me, men."

WOULD WRING HER HANDS

And Cry, Says Mrs. Morack, of Coal Port, Because My Back Hurt So Bad Until I Took Cardui.

Coal Port, Ky.—"I used to suffer so with sick headache, and would lie in bed for three or four days; my side and legs hurt, and I had dragging-down pains. My back hurt so bad I would wring my hands and cry, and it didn't look like I could live; so my father bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to use it.

"Before I began to use it I had suffered misery every month for two years, and was a walking skeleton. Everybody said I had consumption.

"I used five bottles of Cardui, and now I am well. All my aches and pains are gone. I can work and sew all day and it don't hurt me."

You may have the utmost confidence in Cardui as a woman's tonic. It is your friend. It will help you. It will do you no harm. It acts gently. It leaves no bad after-effects. What is good for other women must certainly be good for you.

Why not try Cardui?

said President Taft in presenting the medals, "to be the instrument of conveying to you the gratitude of the nation for what you have done. What you did was bravery equal to anything in battle, under circumstances in which you were facing death close at hand, and it sends a thrill down my back to feel that you are Americans and you acted with the spirit of an American soldier. We like to think of him in saying the lives of your fellow men, and that you have brought credit on the profession which you are following, and have furnished an example in the service that I am sure will not be lost. God bless you! I hope you will all live long and useful lives, and that this work which you have done in offering your lives up will be a source of happiness to you, and of pride to all that come after you."

ARE AFTER TRADE OF NORTHERN NECK

Norfolk Business Men Pay Visit in Interest of Proposed Steamer Line.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lancaster, Va., June 13.—Norfolk is stretching out her arms to catch a portion of the trade of the lower Northern Neck counties. A delegation of business men from that city visited this section last week, with a view to establishing a regular line of steamers from Norfolk to Urbanna, on the Rappahannock, and Reedville, on the Great Wicomico. This line, if established, would put Norfolk in easy communication with nearly all parts of Lancaster and the lower portion of Northern Neck, the Northern Neck, Northumberland, and Mathews, on the south side of the Rappahannock River.

The Methodists of the Rappahannock District have for the last three weeks been making an active canvass in behalf of the laymen's movement and forthrightly Dr. George C. Mason, of Montross, and E. A. Keilam, clerk of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne county, have delivered addresses in nearly every circuit in the Northern Neck, in furtherance of the laymen's movement. During the last week Rev. E. H. Rawlings, D. D., of B. B. Beauchamp, D. D., and Presiding Elder W. G. Boggs have addressed a number of meetings in this county. Dr. Beauchamp delivered an able and instructive address on the moral and religious conditions in Brazil at Edgely Methodist Church, on Sunday morning. He also addressed meetings at Whitmarsh and Rehoboth Sunday afternoon and evening. Dr. Beauchamp, who is a native of Richmond county, was at one time pastor of the Broad Street Methodist Church, in the city of Norfolk, and more than twenty years ago he was transferred to the Louisville Conference, but he has recently been recalled to Virginia to become the missionary secretary of the Virginia Conference.

During the recent thunder storms that have swept over this region, lightning has been playing some right exciting pranks. It struck a dwelling house in the Corotoman region, tearing off the lightning rods, entering one side of the house and demolishing a bed in which a woman and her daughter were sleeping, without doing any damage to the occupants or to the house. Two large sycamore trees, standing close together in the front yard of Dr. M. C. Oldham, of this place, were struck by what appears to have been a divided bolt of lightning. Besides tearing off a portion of the outer bark, the lightning appears to have done damage to the trees. The occupants in the nearby houses were shocked and badly frightened. Strange to say, Dr. Oldham, who was seven or eight miles away at the time, visiting a patient, was badly shocked by a bolt of lightning that struck a large tree near the road on which he was traveling.

REAL STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

Inspiration of Key's Poem Gained 'to Wave Over Fort McHenry.' Baltimore, Md., June 13.—The original "Star Spangled Banner," the flag that inspired Key to write the national song, is to be again unfurled over the ramparts of historic Fort McHenry on September 12, the anniversary of the battle of North Point.

The old flag is in the possession of Eben Appleton, of New York. Mr. Appleton is a descendant of Lieutenant-Colonel George Armistead, who commanded the garrison at Fort McHenry during the British bombardment.

President Taft is to be asked to deliver an address at the celebration of September 12, and a request will be made of the British government to send a warship as an evidence of the friendly spirit between the two nations.

Acker-Bray. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., June 13.—An announcement is made of the marriage of John W. Acker, Jr., of Edom, Rockingham county, and Miss Margaret Bray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Bray, of Stanardsville, Greene county. Rev. K. Holman, of Stanardsville, officiated. The groom is a son of former State Senator John Acker.

Cards Are Out. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., June 13.—Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Maria Louise Bleight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Bleight, of this city, to Rev. W. Taylor Amler, of Baltimore. The ceremony will take place at Trinity Episcopal Church in this city on Thursday evening, June 29, at 8:30 o'clock.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Hagerstown, Md., June 13.—Thinking that a 32-calibre pistol in the house was unloaded, Miss Lena Earmann, a pretty school teacher of Keokuk, pulled down on the trigger. The bullet cut through her middle finger, scraped the bone and buried itself in a bureau across the room.

Dry Kilns Burn. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Staunton, Va., June 13.—Fire to-day destroyed three dry kilns of the Putnam Organ Factory, a big concern in the southern part of the city, causing a loss of about $3,000. The wind blew briskly from the factory, causing no damage to the buildings.

Building Permits. Building and road permits were issued yesterday as follows: R. Francione, to erect a three-story brick store and dwelling, 145 Hull Street, Washington; to cost $2,000.

Miss Katherine H. Haves, to repair brick extension, used by Woman's Christian Association, 140 South Fourth Street, to cost $100.

H. Luvins, to repair brick dwelling, 313 West Grace Street, to cost $250.

NEGRO MURDERER MUST FACE COURT

On Order of Supreme Court, He Is Turned Over to Missouri Authorities.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wytheville, Va., June 13.—Charles Hayes, a negro, appeared in the Supreme Court this morning, in custody of the sheriff of Smyth county, in response to a writ of habeas corpus, issued by the court. After hearing argument of counsel, the court dismissed the writ and directed the sheriff to turn the accused over to the agents of the State of Missouri, who were present in court during the proceedings. The petitioner was represented by John P. Buchanan, and the State of Missouri by Judge George W. Richardson. Hayes is wanted in Missouri for double murder, committed a few weeks ago, and was arrested in response to a requisition from the Governor of Missouri on the Governor of Virginia. The proceedings were to test the regularity of the requisition, which on inspection the court found sufficient. Other proceedings were held as follows:

Kent et al. vs. Dobyns. Argued by J. C. Wyssor, for appellee, and submitted.

R. S. Oglesby Company vs. Lindsey et al. Argued by H. C. Gilmer, for appellant, and W. S. Pogue, for appellee, and submitted.

Tazewell Coal and Iron Company vs. Gillespie et al. Argued by S. C. Graham, for appellant, and continued until tomorrow morning.

The next cases to be called are

Smith vs. Smith, Saunders vs. Link et al., Hurt and Hurt et al. vs. Blankenship, T. Quigley Furniture Company vs. Rhea et al.

Invitations Issued.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Spotsylvania, Va., June 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Rhinehart, of West Virginia, have made announcement and issued cards to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lottie Mason, to Henry D. Lewis, of Spotsylvania county. The marriage will be celebrated on July 25 at the home of the bride.
